Farm Notes

Garner Price bought in Pulaski nine mule colts at $750.

T. A. Wilkinson, of Mt. Salem, has sold his fine farm to Dr. Craddock for $1,500.

Stanford Journal: M. J. Farris bought 65 yearlings and two-year-olds here at $3 1/2 to 4 1/2.

W. O. Mays sold his residence and an adjoining tract of 120 acres in Upper Garrard to Mr. J. B. Logan for $8,400.

Wheat sowing is practically finished with about an average crop sown, perhaps a little larger percentage in corn fields than usual.

James Yorell, of Hustonville, sold 55 cattle to J. C. Johnson, of Danville, at from $4.50 to $5.35 per hundred.

Willard and Stanley Vanarsdall sold their farm of 154 acres three miles northwest of Harrodsburg to G. A. Curry for $16,750.

Ia Scott county corn is selling at $2.50 per barrel; cattle at from $3.50 to $4.50 per cwt.; hogs at $6.50 to $7 per cwt. hay at from $10 to $12 per ton.

J. L. Johnson, of Woodford county, sold 400 pounds of white burley at Lexington at an average of $16.43.

Danville Advocate:—Jake Bonta, of the West End, sold a carload of 200 pounds hogs to W. C. Carpenter at $7.00 per hundred.

Elder Bean, the Lebanon pike farmer, sold 30 hogs averaging 150 pounds to J. C. Johnson, of that city, at $6.00 per hundred.

Poultry and poultry are higher now than ever before—chickens range from $1.50 to 12c per pound and eggs are selling anywhere from 16c to 25c per doz. in the country.

C. R. Martin, the local meat merchant bought ten butcher lots from J. M. McGraw, of Parksville at 4 cents, and 40 hogs from Lafayette Walker at $5.50 per hundred.

Danville Advocate:—Messrs. Bright and Fox, of Danville, bought in Richmond Monday seven mules at $130 to $180 per head. The Wilson Live Stock Co. of Wilson N. C. bought of Grover, of Crab Orchard, 16 mules at $100 per head.

Lancaster Record:—W. B. Burton Lancaster's leading trader in mules and horses, bought four mules at Richmond average $100 and 18 mules from Grover at Crab Orchard at $100 average, twice completing a carload for shipment to Atlanta.

Woodford Sun:—Mr. Bolivar Boyd and Dr. E. R. Woodward went to camp Nelson, Garrard county, where Auctioneer Bond disposed of 100 head of horses, mules, jacks, jennets for G. R. Ruple, the sale aggregating $10,000.

Danville Advocate:—Mr. J. P. Ingram has returned from a trip to Madison county. He reports that corn is selling there at $3.00 per barrel. That beats the price being received in Boyle county as the average price here has been about $2.25 a barrel.

Mr. R. H. Crow, of the Shelby City section, sold 40 head of 1250 pounds cattle to C. C. Coleman, of Harrodsburg at $4.75 per hundred. Mr. Coleman also bought 100 head of 1500 pound cattle from M. J. Farris at $5.75 per hundred.

The average wheat yield for this State according to statistics furnished by the State Agricultural Department was no very heavy, being about eleven bushel. This should be increased and can be made possible if the proper rotation of crops is practiced by the farmers.

Capl. T. D. English, who conducted the B. R. King sale at Moreland tells the Danville Advocate that corn brought $9.00 per barrel in the field. He says corn is selling at prices ranging from $2.25 to $3.00 per barrel depending on the place it is taken. First class corn, shucked, and delivered bringing $9.00.

The first horse sold 3000 pounds of standard performance at the lot or race was Gambetta Wilkes, 2:19, by George Wilkes. He was credited with 204 standard performance at the close of 1908 says Breeders Gazette. September 17, the standard trotters and pacers among the get of Onward 2:25, also by George Wilkes, reached the 200 mark. Of these, 164 are trotter and 46 pacers.

A special from Nicholasville says the large barn of Thomas Stafford, six miles from Nicholasville, containing 29 acres of tobacco was burned to the ground this morning at 1 o'clock. The loss is $7,000, with $3,000 insurance. M. Stafford says that he believes his tobacco was burned by night riders as he had not joined the pool.

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Tersley Told Information Concerning Matters of Current Interest to Kentuckians.

STATE NEWS IN A NUTSHELL

Here Are Found Accurately Detailed The Happenings of the Largest Import Which Are Attracting Attention Throughout Kentucky

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 3.—An exciting episode took place in the circuit court room at Georgetown, when 25 men invaded the room during recess and demanded of J. A. Edge, a Lexington attorney, that he produce Mrs. Kate Richardson, who was recently released from the Lexington asylum on a writ of habeas corpus through the efforts of Edge and other Lexington attorneys. The situation had become acute when Circuit Judge Stout entered the room and ordered the men to disperse, stating that Edge was under the protection of the court.

Edge was later haled before the bar of the court and fined $500 and sentenced to six months in jail for contempt of court in failing to produce his client, Mrs. Richardson.

HE'S CUT OUT MEAT

Governor Blackburn Becomes a Vegetarian on the Isthmus.

Versailles, Ky., Nov. 3.—A hearty welcome was given Governor Joseph C. S. Blackburn of the Panama canal zone by his friends and neighbors upon his return home. He left after a brief stay here for his farm near Spring station and will be in Kentucky until about November 19, when he returns to Washington for a conference with President Taft. "I found I would have to wait two weeks before I could see the President," he said, "and I decided I would rather spend that time in Kentucky."

Governor Blackburn says that he has become a vegetarian and that he is agreeing with him. He has not eaten any meat since he has been in Panama, he says, and has been living almost entirely on fruit and milk.

The people of Versailles are planning to give Governor Blackburn a public reception which will be in the nature of an appreciation of his distinguished public services and the honor he has shed upon his town and county.

SMEDLEY TO BE TRIED

Former County Officer Under Charges Now Said to Be Sane.

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 3.—Receiving information from the superintendent of the Hopkinsville insane asylum to the effect that Hiram Smedley's mind had been restored to its normal condition, Circuit Judge W. M. Reed has issued an order for the sheriff to bring him back for trial. Smedley is charged with pecuniations in office while he was county clerk and deputy county clerk. He has been in the asylum about a month.
